

Kingfisher Class – Autumn 2

(Optional) homework task

In science this half term we are learning about ‘animals including humans’. Our scientist for this half term is Sir David Attenborough. We would like you to create a factfile about him – what is he famous for, what has he achieved, what makes him so special? This could be done on paper or you could record a short video for us and send it to us by email!

